Memorial Day events at the Southern Nevada Veterans Cemetery in Boulder City

(Boulder City, NV) – The public is invited to attend three Memorial Day events at the Southern Nevada Veterans Cemetery located in Boulder City, Nevada.

The first is on Saturday, May 26, 2018 with a "Flag-In" event. Volunteers are asked to arrive no later than 7:00 AM and meet in the chapel courtyard to assist in placing an American flag on each gravesite.

On Sunday, May 27, 2018 there will be a ceremony honoring Special Forces beginning at 10:00 AM at the cemetery's Memorial Garden area.

Then, on Monday, May 28, 2018 there will be a Memorial Day ceremony at the cemetery beginning at 1:00 PM in the cemetery chapel.

The keynote speakers include Nevada Department of Veterans Services Director Kat Miller and LCDR, Ed Giron, Commander of the Naval Operation Support Center in Las Vegas.

The ceremony is sponsored by CPL Matthew A Commons Memorial Post 36, VFW, and Auxiliary, Boulder City in cooperation with the Southern Nevada Veterans Memorial Cemetery Advisory Committee and Volunteer Group. The event is hosted by the Nevada Department of Veterans Services.

Directions: The cemetery is located at 1900 Veterans Memorial Drive in Boulder City, Nevada. If coming from Las Vegas the drive is roughly a half hour. Take I-515 South, go past the construction zone where the Interstate changes into U-S 93 South. Turn right onto Veterans Memorial Drive and follow the signs.
