Bio

Kim Donohue has worked for the Nevada Department of Veterans Services as the Suicide Prevention Program Manager since January, 2018. Kim has been actively participating in the Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration (SAMHSA) Mayors' Challenge Team's, to prevent suicide among Service Members, Veterans and their Families, since the inauguration of the Challenge in January 2018. In December 2019, Governor Sisolak designated Kim to lead the Governor's Challenge Team and continue efforts towards preventing suicide on a statewide level.

Prior to coming to work for NDVS, she taught early childhood education. After ten years of teaching she moved into Corporate America. Kim spent over five years living in Ireland and Great Britain, establishing European offices in England and the Middle East for an International Engineering Software Company.

Kim actively works in the community to collaborate with State and Federal Agencies and Community Organizations to help identify our military population and connect them with necessary resources they may need at any given time.
