Day One is for survivors and supporters, featuring a panel discussion facilitated by Dr. Nicole Anders, Psy.D, licensed clinical psychologist and MST Coordinator for the VA Southern Nevada Healthcare System. This is a must attend for ANYONE wanting to hear first hand the effects of Military Sexual Trauma.

Days Two and Three dig into the symptoms & common reactions / diagnoses, statistics, treatment options, and the ethical responsibilities of the healthcare professional when caring for survivors of MST. Presented by Amanda Turner, LCSW and MST Coordinator for the VA Sierra Nevada HCS and Michelle Dieters, Sexual Assault Prevention and Response Program Manager for the Nevada Air National Guard.

CEUs are pending approval for Licensed Administrators (Board of Examiners for Long Term Care Administrators - ETHICS CEUs), Licensed Nurses (Nevada State Board of Nursing), and Social Workers (Board of Examiners for Social Workers) for all three days if attended.

Military Sexual Trauma Educational Series is funded by the Nevada Department of Veteran Services and is developed in partnership with the Perry Foundation and supported by the U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs.
