

Media Advisory

Nevada Department of Veterans Services
"SERVING NEVADA'S HEROES"

Contact:

Terri Hendry
Communications Director
6630 S. McCarran Blvd.
Bldg. C., Suite 204
Reno, Nevada 89509
Hendryt@veterans.nv.gov

For Immediate Release

October 27, 2021

Media Advisory – Photo Op Northern Nevada State Veterans Home Rose Garden Dedication for Circle of Life Community Hospice

IMPORTANT: This is a donation photo op (invitation-only, outdoor, private event) with a limited number of attendees, including media. This is not a public event; please do not include in upcoming event/calendar mentions beforehand. To minimize the risk of exposure to coronavirus, all attendees, including media, are required to have a COVID temperature and questionnaire screening when entering the building, and while at the Northern Nevada State Veterans Home (NNSVH), both indoors and outdoors, to wear face coverings at all times.

When: Thursday, Oct. 28, 2021, from 11 a.m. to 11:30 a.m.

Where: Northern Nevada State Veterans Home (NNSVH)
36 Battle Born Way, Sparks, Nevada 89431

Media: If possible, please let us know if you will be attending to help us track attendee count by contacting Terri Hendry, Hendryt@veterans.nv.gov; 775-771-2800.

Who: Nevada Department of Veterans Services (NDVS) overseeing the NNSVH; Circle of Life Community Hospice Administrator Michelle Cagle.

What: Circle of Life Community Hospice provided the NNSVH with a donation to plant a rose garden at the home which will be dedicated in their honor at this ceremony with a new stone plaque.

Why: This is the result of a multi-year project where past Deputy Director of Health and Wellness Wendy Simons worked with Michelle Cagle from the Circle of Life Community Hospice to help provide tranquil space for the residents to enjoy.

For more information regarding the home please visit:
<https://veterans.nv.gov/benefits-and-services/northern-nevada-state-veterans-home-sparks-nv/>

###