

Sarah Hogue

- Nevada Veteran Advocate
- Suicide Prevention Program Manager for Nevada Department of Veterans Services
- Holds a Bachelor's Degree in Psychology
- Holds a Master's Degree in Human Resources

Biography

Sarah Hogue is the Veterans Suicide Prevention Program Manager for the Nevada Department of Veterans Services. She joined NDVS in 2021 and oversees suicide prevention and mental health programs for veterans throughout Nevada, including the Governor's and Mayor's Challenges. She specializes in assessing needs, developing initiatives, networking, and resource connection throughout her programs. In her free time, Sarah enjoys hiking and spending time with her husband Jay, family, and friends.

Sarah is a military spouse and has dedicated her time to working and volunteering with active duty military, veterans, and their families for the past 7 years. Sarah is a graduate of the University of Nevada, Reno and holds a Bachelor of Arts degree in Psychology and a graduate of Brandman University and holds a Master of Science in Human Resources.

Speaking Topics

- Suicide Risk, Warning Signs, and Protective Factors
- Nevada Veteran Suicide Prevention Efforts
- Governor's and Mayor's Challenges
- Military Culture and Lifestyle
- Military Resources